TODAY—It is recognized as the one type of machine practical for modern business.

THE RESULT—All of the old time makers have fallen into line and have adopted this construction.

This stamp of approval from rival manufacturers has but served to strengthen public confidence in the machine that has led the way. Don't be persuaded into buying a "trailer"—look over the Underwood and you will understand why we say it is

"The Machine You Will Eventually Buy."

We have never yet seen a fussy, slavish, hardworking mother who was not repaid for all her toil and care and anxiety by a set of as selfish children as ever lived. A mother who really has the good of her children at heart, will teach them as soon as they can walk not only to help themselves, but to help others. She will not bring them up under the impression that they are unfledged angels, but dear, wilful, little mortals who must learn they came to serve and not to rule. Self sacrifice is a good quality in a mother, but it is possible to carry that spirit too far; it is possible to make sacrifices which are not only uncalculated for and not necessary, but really harmful in their effects.

The Living Room.

The living room is one room in the house which, above all others, should be bright and cheerful. If any room must be neglected, let it not be the living room. Have here refined pictures, plenty of books and current literature. This is the place for the piano, the most comfortable chairs and cozy corners. Within the precincts of such a room one may shut out the world and forget that there are any troubles to bear. The character of a room depends upon its wall decoration, its carpets, its pictures and its curtains. We should be careful to have these of the right kind as all others are mere accessories. "We could not afford expensive things," said a newly married couple, "so we chose the comfortable ones," and this idea "comfort" is the secret of all room furnishing.

Gates Ajar.

The touching pathos of childhood is shown in the following: The death of a well-known gentleman had called forth many expressions of sympathy from friends in the way of a profusion of flowers in beautiful designs. After they had been placed around him as he lay in the casket, his little daughter Alice of four years, was led by her mamma into the room to look upon the face of her dead papa. She was naturally attracted by the flowers and by the design of the "Gates Ajar." Her mamma told her that "the beautiful gate" had opened and her papa had passed through and would never come back to them again. The child looked steadily at her papa's face for a few moments, then climbed up so she could reach over and kiss his cold lips saying: "Papa, dear, speak to me and say you will come to the beautiful gate and meet your little Alice there some day."

The Gain of Sunday Rest.

Of course we do not mean that a man will not produce more in a week by working seven days than by working six days. But it is very doubtful whether, at the end of the year he will generally produce more by working seven days in the week. The natural difference between Campania and Spitzbergen is trifling when compared with the difference between a country inhabited by men full of bodily and mental vigor and a country inhabited by men sunk in bodily and mental decrepitude. Therefore it is that we are not poorer but richer, because we have through many ages rested from our labors one day in seven. The day is not lost. While industry is suspended, while the plow lies in the furrow, while the exchange is silent, while no smoke ascends at the factory, a process is going on quite as important to the wealth of the nation as is the work which is performed on more busy days. Man—the machine of machine—the machine compared with which all the contrivances of the Watts and Arkwrights are worthless—is repairing and winding up, so that he returns to his labors on Monday with clearer intellect and livelier spirits, with renewed corporal vigor.

Girls Who Make Poor Wives.

We never see a petted, pampered girl who is yielded to in every whim by servants and parents that we do not sigh with pity for the man who will some day be her husband. We see them in Hickman every day, also the opposite thing in men's clothes. But it is the worshipped daughter who has been taught that her whims and wishes are supreme in a household who makes marriage a failure all her life. She has had her way in things great and small, and when she desired dresses, pleasures or journeys which were beyond the family purse, she carried the day with her tears or sulks, or posing as martyr. The parents sacrificed for her sake, hoping finally to see her married well. They

AFTER SUFFERING FOR YEARS

Cured by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Park Rapids, Minn.—"I was sick for years while passing through the Change of Life and was hardly able to be around. After taking six bottles of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound I gained 20 pounds, am now able to do my own work and feel well."—Mrs. Ed. LA BOE, Park Rapids, Minn.

Brookville, Ohio.—"I was irregular and extremely nervous. A neighbor recommended Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound to me and I have become regular and my nerves are much better."—Mrs. H. KINNISON, Brookville, Ohio.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from native roots and herbs, contains no narcotic or harmful drugs, and today holds the record for the largest number of actual cures for female diseases we know of, and thousands of voluntary testimonials are on file in the Pinkham laboratory at Lynn, Mass., from women who have been cured from almost every form of female complaint, inflammation, ulceration, displacements, fibroid tumors, irregularities, periodic pains, backache, indigestion and nervous prostration. Every suffering woman owes it to herself to give Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a trial.

If you want special advice write Mrs. Pinkham, Lynn, Mass., for it. It is free and always helpful.

carefully hide her faults from her suitors who seek her hand and she is ever ready with smiles and allurements to win the hearts of men, and the average man is as blind to the faults of a pretty girl as a newly hatched bird is blind to the worms upon the trees about him. He thinks her little pettish ways are mere girlish moods; but when she becomes his wife and reveals her selfish and cruel nature he is grieved and hurt to think fate has been so unkind to him.

Aimless Girls.

Poor, indescribably poor, is that girl who has gifts, a clear mind and active hands, and who has not been taught how to use them, wandering aimlessly through life, mediocre in everything, without definite aim, seeking vainly for occupations to amuse or distract, deforming her body to gratify ignorant vanity, injuring herself by late hours and bad food, sparkling dimly in the struggle for a husband of wealth, and then as a wife realizing her weakness and lack of worth as a mother, weeping bitter, stinging tears as she sees the results of her miserable life magnified in her children, and waiting pitiously to help and strength when it is too late. No sarcasm this; this scientific man turns to his work with a heavy heart after studying such a case. But object teaching is nature's teaching, and many repetitions are necessary before people will take the lesson and its full meaning to heart.

Lame
Back

An aching back is instantly relieved by an application of Sloan's Liniment. This liniment takes the place of massage and is better than sticky plasters. It penetrates—without rubbing—through the skin and muscular tissue right to the bone, quickens the blood, relieves congestion, and gives permanent as well as temporary relief.

Here's the Proof.
Mr. JAMES C. LEE, of 100 9th St., N.E. Washington, D.C., writes: "Thirty years ago I fell from a scaffold and seriously injured my back. I suffered terribly at times; from the small of my back all around my stomach was just as if I had been beaten with a club. I used Sloan's Liniment took the pain right out, and I can now do as much better work as any man in the shop, thanks to Sloan's Liniment."

Sloan's Liniment

Mr. J. P. EVANS, of Mt. Airy, N.C., says: "After being afflicted for three years with rheumatism, I used Sloan's Liniment, and was cured almost entirely, and am glad to say I haven't been troubled with rheumatism since. My leg was badly swollen from my hip to my knee. One-half a bottle took the pain and swelling out." Sloan's Liniment has no equal as a remedy for Rheumatism, Neuralgia or any pain or stiffness in the muscles or joints. Price, 25c, 50c and $1.00.

Sloan's Liniment is sold by all druggists and dealers in medicine.

HIDDEN DANGERS.
Nature Gives Timely Warnings That No Hickman Citizen can Afford to Think of Ignoring.

DANGER SIGNAL NO. 1—comes from the kidney secretions. They will warn you when the kidneys are sick. Well kidneys excrete a clear, amber fluid. Sick kidneys send out a thin, pale and foamy, or a thick, red, ill-smelling urine, full of sediment and irregular of passage.

DANGER SIGNAL NO. 2—comes from the back. Back pains, dull and heavy, or sharp and acute, tell you of sick kidneys and warn you of the approach of dropsy, diabetes and Bright's disease. Doan's Kidney Pills cure sick kidneys and cure them permanently. Here's the Hickman proof:

Clay Puckett, of Hickman, says: "I am using Doan's Kidney Pills at the present time and find them to be an excellent remedy. My kidneys bothered me off and on for over a year. At times I suffered from sharp twinges through my back, and it hurt me severely to stoop. The passages of the kidney secretions were also irregular, causing me considerable annoyance. Some time ago I heard about Doan's Kidney Pills and decided to give them a trial. I procured a supply at Helms & Elson's drug store. I am now using the second box and am delighted with the results. My general health has been greatly improved and I am glad to give Doan's Kidney Pills my endorsement."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50c. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the United States. Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.
